Three Major Information Statutes

☐ Public Law Information Statutes:

- The “Freedom of Information Act” (FOIA), 5 U.S.C §552
- The “Privacy Act”, 5 U.S.C §552(a)
- The “FOIA Improvement Act of 2016” Pub. L. No.114-185

☐ Tax Law Information Statute:

- Internal Revenue Code (IRC) §6103
- IRC §7803(7)

☐ Administrative Provisions:

- Internal Revenue Manual (IRM) Cites

Fundamentals

The FOIA, Privacy Act & IRC §6103:

- ☐ The FOIA statute was created to generate & promote public access to governmental records & information
- ☐ The Privacy Act was created to prohibit the government's collection & dissemination of unnecessary information and to provide all taxpayers the ability to access & correct information maintained by the Government
- ☐ IRC §6103 was enacted to “prevent” public disclosure of a taxpayer's tax returns and tax return information, due to the FOIA's inability to restrict such information disclosure.

Fundamentals

- The FOIA is generally divided into three categories as follows:
- Category I-5 U. S. C. §552(a)(1):
- The information contained under this provision of FOIA is the information required to be published in the Federal Register. This category includes the general rules and regulations of the federal agencies, such as the regulations of the U.S. Treasury Department.
- Category II-5 U. S. C. §552(a)(2):
- The information contained under this provision of FOIA is the information which the Government must publish and offer (for sale) to the general public and/ or also make such information available for public inspection. Additionally, this category includes agency decisions, policy statements and staff manuals.
- Category III-5 U. S. C. §552(a)(3):
- The third category under FOIA includes all information not otherwise made available to taxpayers as noted via categories I & II above. Generally, all tax returns and tax return information, that is subject to the FOIA guidelines, are available pursuant this category.

Fundamentals

The FOIA Improvement Act-Public Law #114-185:

- ❑ The FOIA Improvement Act was signed into law June 30, 2016, by then President Obama, which changed, updated & mandated various provisions of the FOIA Act establishing new requirements for:
  - ❑ Agency response letters
  - ❑ Notices to requesters extending certain response time frames, and
  - ❑ Increasing the legal period to file an Administrative Appeal to “90 Days”

Fundamentals

Disclosure & IRC §6103:

☐ IRC §6103 (c) – “Disclosure of Returns & Return Information to Designee of Taxpayer”

- ☐ Typically, practitioners who provide POAs & TIAs to the IRS

☐ IRC §6103 (e) – “Disclosure to Persons Having a Material Interest”

- ☐ Explains when the return of a person (which also includes various business entities) is open for inspection or disclosure
- ☐ Usually upon “written request”

Fundamentals

Disclosure & IRC §7803:

☐ Access to Case Files – “The Administrative File”

- ☐ Typically, this provisions of law applies to any “disclosure request” related to a formal request for IRS internal documents, reviews, information and IRS workpapers pursuant to a tax matter subject to the jurisdiction of the “IRS Independent Office of Appeals” (IRS Appeals).
- ☐ This request is usually referred to as the “Administrative File”.
- ☐ The production of the “Administrative File” from IRS Appeals will not include any taxpayer provided documents, only IRS employee files, determinations & decisions

Fundamentals

Disclosure & The IRM:

- ❑ IRM 1.3.2.3 – “Processing Requests for Return & Return Information”
- ❑ IRM 4.2.5.6 – “Requests for Open Examination File & Workpapers”
- ❑ IRM 11.3.2.4.1.1 – “Disclosure of Collection Activities with Respect to Joint Returns”

“FOIA REQUESTS”

Processing the FOIA Request:

- ❑ The IRS is required to respond to the initial FOIA request within “20 days” (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays). However, IRS Disclosure may request an “extension” of at least “10 or more days” (subject to the taxpayer’s or representative’s approval). Judicial review is allowed subsequent to the 10-day or 20-day response period if the request is denied and the taxpayer has exhausted their administrative remedy via the Appeals.
- ❑ Treasury Regulation (Treas. Reg.) §601.702

“FOIA REQUESTS”

- Granting the FOIA Request:

- ☐ If the request is granted by the IRS in full or in part, and if the requester wants a copy of the records, a statement of the applicable fees, if there are any, shall be mailed to the requester either at the time of the determination or shortly thereafter.
- ☐ If the taxpayer or representative has made request only to inspect records or documents, the IRS is required to make the records available promptly for inspection, at the time & place stated (which is normally at the appropriate IRS office where the requested records are controlled).

“FOIA REQUESTS”

- Requests for Expedited Processing of the FOIA:

- ☐ When a taxpayer or representative demonstrates a “compelling need” pertaining to a FOIA request, the request shall be taken out of order & given expedited treatment. A “compelling need involves”
- ✓ Circumstances in which the lack of expedited treatment could reasonably be expected to pose an imminent threat to the life or physical safety of an individual
- ✓ An urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity, if made by a person primarily engaged in disseminating information
- ✓ The loss of substantial due process rights

“FOIA REQUESTS”

- Administrative Appeal Rights:

❑ Treasury Regulation (Treas. Reg.) §601.702 (10) provides & explains the taxpayer’s rights & general guidelines related to requesting an administrative appeal concerning the denial of either a FOIA or Disclosure.

❑ However, please be aware that Treas. Reg. §601.702 has not been officially updated subsequent to the implementation of the “FOIA Improvement Act of 2016”, which increase the time period to file an administrative appeal to “90 days” from the previous “35 days” which continues to be noted via Treas. Reg. §601.702.

“FOIA REQUESTS”

❑ FOIA Practice Pointer #1:

➤ Please note that pursuant to IRM §4.4.7.2.2.5-1(H), “Mailing”, the IRS representative is actually and specifically instructed to “NEVER send the taxpayer or power of attorney copies of Form 4665”. However, please refer to IRM 11.3.13.5.2.6, “Exemption (b)(5)” which contravenes this statement.

❑ FOIA Practice Pointer #2:

- The representative’s request for information via a FOIA must specifically identify the information, documentation and/or records requested. A “blanket request” for all records is invalid and does not meet the statutory criteria regarding the requests for information via a FOIA.

❑FOIA Practice Pointer #3:

- Both the envelope and the appeal itself shall be clearly marked. “Appeal for Expedited Processing”. Also, the IRS’s action to deny or affirm denial of a request for expedited processing and/or the IRS’s failure to respond in a timely manner to such request shall be subject to judicial review.

“FOIA & Disclosure Requests”

- ✓ PINEX
- ✓ MFTRAX
