

Personal and Assets

Both in their late 60s

He has health issues and is not able to work

She has limited income

No money

House worth $400,000, owe $300,000

Cannot make payments or afford to live there

Foreclosure with IRS receiving $100,000

Balances

2007

- He owes $200,000 from SFR
- Notice of Deficiency ignored

2009

- Originally owe $20,000 jointly
- 1040 Joint Audit ignored
 - IRS assesses tax on 1099 income, which was already taken on 1120S
- Now owe $80,000

All other years

Nothing filed

5

Filing Returns

 $\begin{array}{c} \mathrm{FILED}\ 2014\ \mathrm{TO} \\ 2019 \end{array}$

SOME JOINT, SOME SEPARATE

SMALL BALANCES

Objectives

Return	Audit	Foreclosure	OIC
Have correct return for 2007 accepted	Correct audit for 2009	Get money back from the house foreclosure Get Offer in Compromise Doubt as to Liability or Audit Reconsideration accepted Do claim for Injured Spouse	Get Offer in Compromise Doubt as to Collectibility accepted for him

7

Revenue Officer assigned

2019

Requested CDP, but IRS loses it

House foreclosed
IRS keeps
$100,000 proceeds

2022	Offer in Compromise Doubt as to Liability and Audit Reconsideration for 2009
	CDP – Offer in Compromise Doubt as to Collectibility

Audit Reconsideration granted Adjustments post

Request Injured Spouse for money kept from house

Went to Taxpayer Advocate to hold it Offer specialist sent case back to appeals

11

Owed from 2010 to 2014 about $1,400,000

PPIA for $5000 first year, $6000 second year, then $7800

Had to liquidate life insurance

Amended return would reduce balance by $100,000

13

IA defaulted because returns not filed Tried to reinstate with ACS, but above their threshold Filed 911 for adjustments and wrongful termination Taxpayer Advocate got amended return processed, resolved identity theft issue, and reinstated IA

May, 2017

Did lien discharge for $170,000 on property sale

15

September, 2017

Living in Brazil

• Not a citizen, no longer US resident, and not coming back

Sold his share of business

- Receiving $1,000,000 now and $2,000,000 over 4 years
- · Payments go to attorney account in Florida

Earned $220,000 in 2016 and owed balance

New RO in Abusive Tax Avoidance Transactions Division (ATAT) Prepare 433a • Earning $40,000 a month for 48 months • Expenses of $23,000 a month • Net of $17,000 a month • Has $35,000 in US bank account • No property

17

Requested CDP on recently filed years Submitted 433a Requested IA for $17,000 a month RO wants $20,139 and requested information on what happened to $1,000,000 Used money to pay debts in Brazil

Advised RO that he will owe for 2017

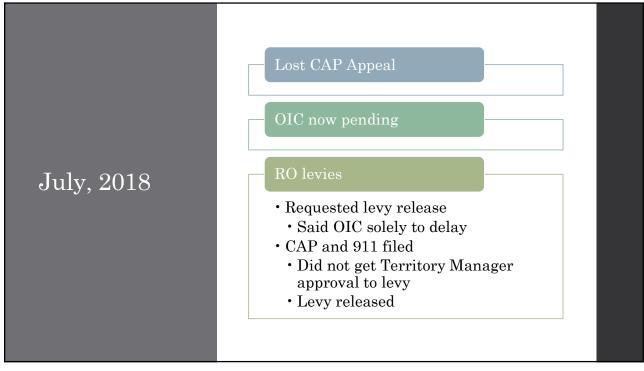

RO not happy with explanation of money

RO requested sales contract

We agree to $20,139 and request IA

19

Rejected IA • RO and GM say he has other income • CAP forwarded to Appeals CDP Hearing set • Prepared and sent SO Offer in Compromise with RO's numbers • $241,668 for cash offer • 20% down • $483,336 for periodic payment • $100 a month with balloon payment on 24th month

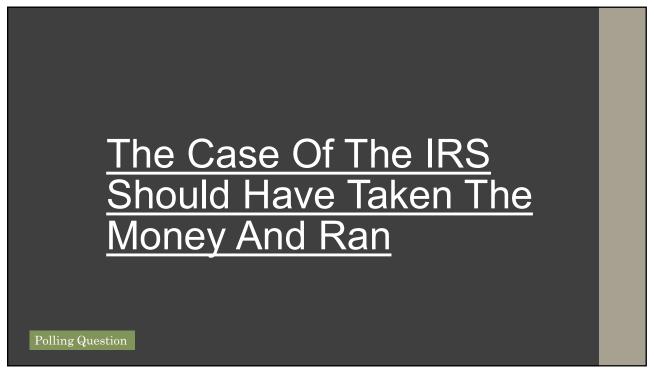

OIC specialist contacts us Says he can full pay, but did not take into account that payments will end Wants contract Wants 2017 return Owes more money Wants proof of estimated payments for 2018 Amended return finally processed, decreasing balance by $100,000

August, 2019 OIC Specialist thinks Offer is fair, but RO says there are 3 contracts Contract we provided is not clear Does not think Territory Manager and IRS Counsel will approve it Sent him updated information

Background

Taxpayer owes $700,000 for SFRs for 2005, 2006, and 2007

Final Notice of Intent to Levy was sent and lien filed

RO assigned, levies his share of rent, and closes file in 2018

RO reassigned in 2021 with 6 months left on Statute of Limitations

Taxpayer retains us

RO says he is sending case to DOJ to reduce to judgment

27

Financials

Limited income

No money

Had house worth $480,000 with ex-wife. No mortgage. He added her on the deed in 2007 when they got married. Renting it out. He planned to moved back in under divorce agreement for 3 years and pay her rent. He would quit claim it to her in 2023.

Offer in Compromise

Did OIC for 80% of $480,000 divided by 2 minus rent he would pay wife. Offer was $166,800

Stopped lawsuit

Stopped CSED

Low income so no payments

29

Offer in Compromise

Offer Specialist confused

Stuck on old business that was closed in 2010

No final return was filed

She did not know if it was really closed

Rejection letter

Old business not referenced

Too much income

Disagreed with appraisal

